Unless otherwise provided in the Company Act, each director shall attend the meeting of the Board of Directors in person. A Director may appoint other directors as proxy to attend the meetings of the Board of Directors on his/her behalf with a written proxy, stating therein the scope of authority with reference to the subjects to be discussed at the meeting. A director may only be appointed to act as a proxy by one other director. Resolutions at meetings of the Board of Directors shall be made in accordance with the Company Act.

Article 15-1 The Board of Directors is authorized to determine the remuneration for the Chairman and directors based on the extent of their participation in the business operations and the level of contribution to the Company and with reference to the international or domestic industrial standards.

Chapter 5 Managers

Article 16 The Company may have managers whose appointment, discharge and remuneration shall be decided in accordance with Article 29 of the Company Act.

Chapter 6 Accounting

Article 17 After the end of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall prepare the business report, financial statements, and proposal concerning the distribution of earnings or covering of losses and submit the same to the regular shareholders' meeting for acceptance.

Article 18 The Company shall not pay dividends or bonuses to shareholders when there are no earnings. For distribution of earnings, the Company shall first estimate and reserve the taxes to be paid, the losses to be covered, and the legal reserve to be set aside which will be 10% of such earnings after including items other than the net profit after tax in the undistributed surplus earnings for the year; however, this restriction does not apply if the accumulated legal reserve has reached the amount of the Company's paid-in capital. Then the Company set aside a special reserve in accordance with the laws and regulations or as requested by the authorities in charge.

Before paying dividends or bonuses to shareholders, the Company shall set aside not more than 2% of its profits of the period for which the Company distributes the earnings as remuneration to its directors and not less than 1% as profit sharing bonuses to its employees; provided, however, that the Company shall have reserved a sufficient amount to offset its accumulated losses. Employees' profit sharing bonuses are resolved by a majority vote at a meeting of Board of Directors attended by at least two-thirds of the total number of directors and shall be reported to the shareholders' meeting.

After the Company set aside the reserve pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, in case of any balance left over, together with the retained earnings from previous years, the Board of Directors shall prepare a surplus earnings distribution proposal and submit the same to the shareholders' meeting for review and approval by a resolution for distributing the dividends and bonuses.

Earnings may be distributed in total after taking into consideration the financial, business and operational factors. Earnings of the Company may be distributed by way of cash dividend and/or stock dividend and preferably by way of cash dividend. Distribution of earnings may also be made by way of stock dividend, provided however, the ratio for stock dividend shall not exceed 50% of total dividend distributed.

In case there are no earnings for distribution, or the earnings are far less than the actual earnings previously distributed by the Company, or considering the financial, business or operational factors of the Company, the Company may allocate a portion or all of its reserves for distribution in accordance with relevant laws or regulations or the orders of the competent authorities. When the reserves are to be distributed in cash, the distribution may be approved by the Board of Directors in accordance with Article 241 of the Company Act and reported to the shareholders' meeting, instead of being submitted to the shareholders' meeting for acceptance.
